YOUNG ACTORS' THEATRE PRESENTS

Jingle All The WAY

A NOTE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

Welcome to Jingle All the Way! The Holidays are such a special time for all of us. From the decorations, to the lights, to our favorite music and cheer, we always seem to find pleasure in each other and those around us.

I decided this year to get to know our performers a little bit better by asking them to tell me what the Holidays mean to them. It filled my heart with joy to read their kindness and generosity. There are so many that do for others (which doesn't surprise me at all) by collecting gifts for those in need, and so many that celebrate differently than what we may be used to. But, universally, the most common thread among all of the notes I received is the time that the performers get to spend with their families, their extended families, and special traditions that make this time of year so special.

There are so many people who make this show what it is today! As always, our students have the benefit of working with our amazing Music Director, Matt Ignacio. A shout out to his wife, Jerrica Ignacio, who has also helped with some of vocal parts. I'd also like to send a giant thank you to our amazing choreographer, Brice Cloke. When we first started putting this project together, I instantly connected with his love of all things for the Holidays. His vision and ideas are a constant inspiration! Additionally, thank you to our Stage Manager, Natalie Gelb who has truly kept us on task and informed. Leanne Ranier and her costuming team have done a fantastic job with all of the different looks that they have put together. Our sets, as always, help complete the vision, by Brett Morris. Behind the scenes, our Production Chair, Elise Pett has helped us stay organized. Lastly, we could not do what we do here at YAT, without the steady and consistent guidance of our Executive Director, Kristina Petrea. She is truly our rock, the glue that holds all of us together!

May this Holiday Season and all of the New Year, fill your hearts with as much Joy as this years production fills my heart with!

Happy Holidays!

xo

Jean Isaac, Director of Jingle all the Way

P.S. I hope you can see Nunsense here in January! Guaranteed to be a hoot!!
