

General Information

For this YAT event, you will audition, rehearse, and perform a fully staged musical in just 24 hours! The cast will gather on Friday night to audition for a mystery musical and will receive their roles that evening. The following two days will be filled with rehearsal, creativity, and teamwork, culminating in a full-length staged musical to share with the YAT audience!

A unique aspect of this experience is that the cast doesn't know the show they're auditioning for until they arrive on Friday night, adding a fun element of surprise. This process challenges the actors while imparting lessons in improvisation, teamwork, character, and more! The 24-hour musical challenge heavily relies on teamwork and collaboration. We'll work together as an artistic team and cast to create props, sets and costumes for the show.

After our performance and going through this experience, we'll cherish memories that last forever! It will truly be an amazing accomplishment, a meaningful bonding moment, and a wonderful demonstration of what the talented students of the Young Actors' Theatre community can achieve in just 24 hours!

Audition Information

Please prepare a one-minute contemporary Broadway or Jukebox Musical song selection that you believe highlights your vocal range and acting abilities. Please be sure to have music accompaniment ready to use; acapella auditions are not permitted. Additionally, there will be a short movement combination taught on Friday night. Please wear close-toed shoes and clothes you can dance in.

Rehearsal Information

As indicated in the schedule below, we will be at the YAT rehearsal space all day. Therefore, all cast members should arrive prepared with dance attire and shoes, snacks, and plenty of water. We will have a 45-minute lunch and dinner break, so please bring packed meals. Alternatively, you may see a staff member at the front desk to sign a waiver if you'd like to grab food from the mall.

Schedule Breakdown

Please review the schedule carefully, as we cannot accommodate major conflicts for any participants. If you have a minimal conflict (e.g., arriving one hour late on Saturday), please reach out, and we may be able to accommodate it. However, if you haven't notified the team about a potential conflict, it will be assumed that you are fully available all weekend. All cast members must commit to this weekend of rehearsals and the performance to ensure a smooth and enjoyable event!
